Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, "tension loops" (plural) lacks antecedent basis.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claims 2-16 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 17-20 are allowed.

(The allowable subject matter being the collapsible bag having bottom, top and intermediate panels, a side wall extending around the panels, dividers between the panels, a flexible tension loop extending at least around the intermediate panel, and flexible material extending over a substantial portion of each one of the panels and side wall; the tension loop being configured to outward urge the panel perimeter(s) such that the flexible material extends substantially uninterrupted over the panels and is held taut by the loop.)
